

ANN MCGEE GREEN

Ann has been an attorney for more than 30 years and focuses her practice on the areas of elder law and estate planning, guardianship, estate and trust administration, Medicaid and Special Needs Planning. In January 2007, she was invited into the prestigious Special Needs Alliance, an organization comprised of America's leading Disability and Public Benefits lawyers. Since 2009 she has been named the best elder law attorney in Southwest Virginia in Our Health Magazine. Each year since 2008 she has been chosen by her peers to be listed for estate planning and probate in the Virginia Super Lawyers publication, an honor given to only 5% of attorneys. Every year since 2010 she has been listed in the Best Lawyers in America. Ann has led a variety of estate planning seminars on Estate Planning, Medicare Part D, Medicaid, Special Needs Trusts and Guardianship for many local organizations.

PRESENTED BY THE ARC OF THE NRV

FREE PRESENTATION ON DISABILITY RELATED ISSUES: GUARDIANSHIP, DISABILITY TRUSTS, DISABILITY SAVINGS ACCOUNTS, MEDICAID AND SPECIAL NEEDS PLANNING

Monday May 6th

6:00-8:30PM

NRVCS RADFORD LOCATION

401 West Main Street
Radford, VA 24141

Ann Green, Attorney at law, will be giving this eye-opening introductory presentation on guardianships, alternatives to guardianships, disability trusts, disability savings accounts, and special needs planning for individuals with disabilities who have Medicaid or Medicaid Waiver. She will also emphasize the importance of proper planning as to avoid a disruption in public benefits. This is a great opportunity for parents, caregivers, and professionals in the field to learn more about these topics. No need to register, all are welcome!